LIGHTING PROPOSALS

REPORT OF TROPICO TRUSTEES OF MEETING HELD THURSDAY EVENING

The board of trustees of the city of Tropico met at the Tropico city hall Thursday evening of this week, Trustees Conrad, Henry, Rich and Webster being present. Minutes of last meeting read and filed.

The Kenworthy proposal to furnish new city hall with thirty window shades read and on motion of Trustee Webster bid was laid on table.

The following bid was received by the Pacific Light and Power Corporation to serve the Brand boulevard ornamental lighting posts with electrical current: Eighty-one metal posts furnished with appliances and receptacles for 100 watt, 110 volt tungsten lamps, one to each post, at a charge for service as follows:

From one-half hour after sunset to 11 o'clock p. m. at the rate of 5½c per kilowatt hour; and from 11 p. m. to turning off time (one-half hour before sunrise) at a rate of 4c per kilowatt hour, this bid being for a period of five years. Same was read and laid over for one week.

Mr. G. B. McLean of the Pacific Light and Power Corporation called the attention of the board to the general situation regarding the supply of electrical energy in the vicinity of Tropico, and pointed out that the P. L. & P. could afford a lower rate to the company than either Los Angeles, Glendale or the Edison company, for the reason that they had lines of energy either built in or in near prospect.

A year and a half ago Los Angeles bid for furnishing Tropico with electrical energy through Mr. Scattergood. The city of Los Angeles was not then prepared to bid for this service. Neither is it now, nor is Glendale in a position to put in a competitive bid, for they get their power from the Pacific Light and Power Corporation and are restricted in the sale of same.

Mr. McLean said that the bid the Pacific Light and Power Corporation had given the city of Tropico was absolutely fair, it being the same as that charged Alhambra. In reply to a question by Trustee Rich, Mr. McLean said that the cost of the ornamental lighting system for Brand boulevard according to the bid would amount to about $125 per month.

City Clerk Burch called attention of the board to the matter of closing the account of expenditures from the fire protection and building fund. On motion the board of public works was requested to investigate the report.

City Attorney Goodwin submitted a review of law and situation with reference to storm water protection, particularly from overflow from country and canyons to the east and northeast.

City Engineer Ashton reported progress of both ornamental street lighting and street paving on Brand boulevard, and stated that the P. E. is about to remove the school house switch.

Committee on finance reported favorably on the following demands:

H. Jennings, 75 cents.

F. V. Ashton, Oak drive engineering, $84.50.

Southern California Gas Company, fuel city hall, 14 cents.

Wm. C. Mabry, stretchers, $13.50.

Hal Davenport, insurance premium, $15.75.

Meeting adjourned.

COMEDY REIGNS AT GLENDALE THEATER TONIGHT

Manager Clark of the Glendale theater has procured a bill for tonight that caters to the comedy loving audience.

"When the Girls Joined the Force" is a two-reel comedy that is guaranteed to make you laugh from the start to the finish. It is one of the funniest of the funny.

"The Boarder's Mishap" is another laugh producer, in which the boarder somewhat under the influence of the juice that cheers seems to have a knack of finding everybody else's room but his own at his hotel and furnishes amusing situations.

Drama is not neglected, for the two-reel feature, "The Isle of Abandoned Hope," depicts the story of a shipwreck among the South Sea Islands, and the thrilling escape of a few of the crew and passengers to a cannibal island and exciting subsequent adventures when marooned by an active volcano and the offering of one member of the crew as a sacrifice by the natives. The rest are shut in a valley from which they escape by an underground river. This picture was taken in the Hawaiian Islands and none of it faked.

So many unfortunate people nowadays with nothing to wear but clothes and nothing to eat but food.

MARRIED

The popular Lohengrin wedding march was again heard in Glendale this week, when at 8 o'clock Thursday evening Mrs. Josephine Waddell of Galesburg, Ills., and Mr. Albert H. Hutchinson of Murietta, Cal., were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. C. R. Norton.

This ceremony, which answered the call of 63 and 67 years respectively, was performed in the home of the bride's life-long friends, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Jordan, 126 South Maryland avenue.

A green and white motif prevailed and was beautifully carried out in embankments of fern and roses. The mantel was concealed and transformed into a beautiful arbor 'neath which the silver-haired bride in a modish gown of lavender silk and cream lace, with a shower bouquet of roses, and groom, in conventional black, plighted their troth. Both were unattended, but richly endowed with health and happiness.

Forest Jordan, accompanied on the piano by his mother, Mrs. E. L. Jordan, gave violin selections and also played the wedding march, all of which ceased during the ceremony and serving of an elaborate buffet supper, the bride's duties in serving having been to cut the attractive wedding cake.

Guests present besides members of the Jordan family were Mrs. J. W. Wybrant, of Plymouth, Ills.; Mrs. E. A. Ream and daughter, Miss Grace; Mrs. Margaret Fulkerson, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Drury and child of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Cross of Tropico and Mrs. C. K. Robertshaw of Glendale, all of whom extended heartiest congratulations and good wishes to the aged couple who, until their departure for their beautiful home in Murietta, where the groom is a member of the large ranch firm, Brown & Hutchinson, will be guests at the Hotel Gates, in Los Angeles.

In an experience of marrying more than five hundred couples, the Rev. Norton never had another case just like this, the groom having served in the Union army from 1861 to 1865, the bride being of a family in Kentucky who served very strongly on the other side. Behold the happy change.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Homer Temple of 301 Orange street are entertaining as a guest in their home Miss Margaret Temple, a niece of Mr. Temple, who is visiting on the coast from Greenville, Tenn.

ENTERTAIN TEACHERS

INTERMEDIATE P. T. A. OPENS WITH ANNUAL INFORMAL RECEPTION

As usual, the annual informal reception given by the Intermediate Parent-Teacher Association in honor of the teachers of the school was most interesting and seemingly enjoyed by those who gathered together at the Third street school between 8 and 8:15 o'clock Friday night.

The interior of the building was ablaze with light and filled with long stemmed cosmos and drooping branches and pepper boughs. Quantities of these softly blended blossoms and foliage were used in the halls and large auditorium, where an appropriate program presided over by the P. T. A. president, Dr. Jessie A. Russell, opened at 8:30 o'clock.

Owing to unavoidable circumstances, Mr. A. B. Heacock, president of the board of education, was unable to be present, so greetings were given by Mrs. Charles H. Toll, president of the P. T. Federation, who extended a few words of greeting and spoke briefly upon Parent-Teacher work, its aim, etc.

Prof. Richardson D. White, supervising principal of the public schools, also gave a short talk relative to Parent-Teacher work in connection with the child, and an appropriate response was made in behalf of the teachers by Miss Carrie Noble.

Mrs. Greely Kolts, accompanied by Mrs. L. V. Lawton, delighted those present with select vocal numbers, and Mrs. Leora Cammack, accompanied by Miss Dorothy Lee, also offered songs in her usual charming manner. Those who had hoped to hear some of Mrs. Sloan's inimitable reading were greatly disappointed, as that splendid entertainer was detained at home on account of illness.

Preceding the program the guests withdrew to the spacious court in the rear, where a strung light overhead illuminated the darkness sufficiently to reveal delicious homemade cakes and coffee and chairs in groups, whereupon those served could comfortably sit and chat as they consumed these refreshments served by Mrs. A. H. Wightman, Mrs. Nat Green, Mrs. Mary T. Edwards, Mrs. Herman Paine, Mrs. E. S. McKee, Mrs. W. H. McMasters, Mrs. Frederick L. Baker and Mrs. C. L. Peckham.

Patronesses seen in the receiving line were Dr. Jessie A. Russell, Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, Mrs. W. E. Edmonds, Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, Mrs. E. S. McKee, Mrs. Arthur C. Brown, Mrs. A. H. Wightman, Mrs. Herman Paine and Mrs. C. W. Ingledue.

Those in charge of the decorations were Mrs. Arthur C. Brown, Mrs. Frank Thorpe and Mrs. H. G. Henning, and the teachers who were so graciously feted were the Misses Carrie Noble, Mable Shultz, M. Louise Kimball, Mary Blackburn, Mable Thayer, Helen White, Lula M. Wooldridge, Marjorie Conners, Lucy K. Moore, Clara Midcalf, Mr. E. M. Polley, Mr. J. N. Clark, Mr. L. S. Donnell and Prof. Richardson D. White.

STRANGERS IN GLENDALE

There are many strangers in Glendale inquiring about the prices of property and considering renting dwelling houses. The citizens of this place who have resided here for some time should receive these strangers kindly and treat them so fairly that they will decide to invest in Glendale property.

BRALYS HAVE RETURNED

Mrs. Braly is very much in love with Glendale, her home for the past several years, and her husband very gracefully gave up his beautiful home on Orange Grove avenue, Pasadena, to come here. He will be warmly welcomed by the lady's many friends here, both for her sake and his own.

BOOSTING FREDERICKS

LOCAL PEOPLE JOIN POLITICAL CAMPAIGN EXCURSIONISTS ON AUTO TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Parker of 227 South Central avenue, together with Mrs. R. W. Meeker, Mrs. Thomas Layton and Miss Beulah Layton of East Colorado boulevard and Mrs. Mary Garrett of Vine street, Glendale, were among the large and enthusiastic party which accompanied the John D. Fredericks Republican party on their campaigning excursion from Los Angeles to San Pedro and Venice Friday of this week.

Stops with speeches, etc., were made at Torrance, Redondo Beach, where the ladies of the Republican party served a delicious hot luncheon to all; Inglewood, Venice, where Fredericks was met by the band and escorted to the Auditorium, where he addressed a capacity house; Ocean Park, where the ladies of the party were entertained at tea in Nat Goodwin's cafe, and at Santa Monica, where the Women's Club house was not nearly large enough to accommodate those who had gathered to hear this candidate for governor of the state of California speak.

DEATH OF MR. HAMMAKER

Mr. W. O. Hammaker of 1500 West Seventh street, who has been in a dangerous condition for several weeks, died about 6:30 this morning.

Mr. Hammaker has been unconscious much of the time during the past week and was in such condition when his sorrowing mother arrived a few days ago, but a few hours before he passed out he rallied and although he could not articulate, he recognized his wife and daughter, also his dear mother.

Brother Hammaker has held the position as foreman of the Messrs. Kent & Son, contractors of our city, painting department for a number of years. It was owing to his conscientious diligence in this connection that his health became undermined several months ago. His sense of duty to his employers and unusual devotion to his wife and daughter impelled him to continue the struggle when he should have been under a physician's care. Nature could not stand the imposition and a loving wife, daughter and mother, the latter who had recently traveled nearly four thousand miles to see "her dearest boy," are sadly bereaved.

Aside from other interests with which Brother Hammaker was connected, and of which the writer is not fully informed, he held the responsible position of recording and financial secretary of Local No. 416, Painters' and Paperhangers' Union of Glendale.

Brother Hammaker was also affiliated with Glendale Central Labor Council, believed thoroughly in the principles of organized labor as the expedient of the hour, and devoted much time and means in the interest of what he believed to be for the greatest good of the greatest number.

Mrs. Hammaker has placed the details of the funeral arrangements in the hands of the executive board of Local 416. Fortunately for the family, our local has recently passed its first anniversary, which will relieve very largely the financial strain that for months has been so heavy.

The remains are in charge of the Pulliam Undertaking Company and will be shipped east.

A BEREAVED BROTHER.

TROPICO

Mrs. Frank Shaw of the board of managers of the Florence Crittendon Home of Los Angeles, gave a talk along the lines of the great work being done and the good accomplished by this great charitable institution before N. P. Banks W. R. C. Friday afternoon. For several years N. P. Banks Corps has been aiding with contributions this most worthy institution, and Mrs. Shaw's splendid talk of Friday afternoon but added one more link in the chain of friendship and love that is being silently though firmly welded between the noble, patriotic women of N. P. Banks Corps and the managers of the Florence Crittendon Home and the great work accomplished. "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Bryson and Mrs. John Bryson of Los Angeles spent Friday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Bryson of South Glendale avenue.

Mrs. James Brown of South Glendale avenue entertained as her guest at luncheon Friday Mrs. Seymour Tally of Tally's theater, Los Angeles.

When you figure the high cost of living, remember Americans spend a million a day to see moving pictures.

MRS. RICHTER HOSTESS

FOOTHILL CLUB ENJOYS AFTERNOON OF CARDS AT RICHTER HOME

Sheltered from the burning rays of the sun in rooms that breathed the fragrance of pink cochet roses and dark red dahlias and glowed with the brightness of clustered goldenrod, members of the Foothill Club more than enjoyed Friday afternoon as guests of Mrs. Charles F. L. Richter, who entertained most delightfully in her attractive home on Mountain street and Brand boulevard, Casa Verdugo.

Five Hundred was chosen by the charming hostess as the afternoon's diversion, tables for which were arranged in the living-room, dining-room, den and fern-filled solarium. Tallies used for scores were pretty little scenes done in colors, and at the close of several enjoyable games Mrs. G. K. Barnes and Mrs. Richard L. Phister were awarded handsome prizes as tokens of victory and defeat.

Iced punch refreshed the guests as they sat at cards and as the afternoon drew to a close a delicious collation was served at the small tables.

Those present besides the regular members of the club, a newly made member of which is Mrs. Menzo Williams, recently returned from a trip around the world, were Mrs. Harry Peterson, Miss Bertha Peterson and Miss Emma Jones, who is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Williams.

Assisting Mrs. Richter was Mrs. Alfred Priest, both of whom were most gracious and charming, and who, together with other club members, will be entertained Thursday afternoon, October 16, in the home of Mrs. Andrew Robertson, 925 Stocker street.

MRS. TEMPLE ENTERTAINS HER COMMITTEE AT TEA

At a prettily appointed tea in her home, 301 Orange street, Mrs. Chas. Homer Temple entertained the Tuesday Afternoon Club committee of which she is chairman informally on Friday afternoon.

Mingled with the social hour was a detailed discussion relative to the Tuesday Afternoon Club fiesta which is to be given at La Ramada next Saturday afternoon and evening, Oct. 3, and at which Mrs. Temple and the following committee will have charge of the fishpond which is to be in the nature of a butterfly catch. Those serving with Mrs. Temple will be Mrs. William K. Russell, Mrs. A. M. Hunt, Mrs. Carrie Waite, Mrs. W. P. Thompson, Mrs. Clinton Booth, Mrs. Arthur D. Cross, Mrs. Oliver O. Clark, Mrs. Genevieve Goss and Miss Reed.

Assisting the gracious hostess during the afternoon was a niece, Miss Margaret Temple of Greenville, Tenn.

WOMAN'S CLUB ENTERTAINS

The Loyal Woman's Club of the Christian church of Glendale entertained Friday afternoon in the church parlors. The hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Berkey, Mrs. Wasson, Mrs. Pigg, Mrs. Heacock, Mrs. Jordon and Mrs. Best.

Mrs. Vivian Webb of 209 North Maryland avenue delighted the guests by rendering two piano solos in an especially artistic manner, and Miss Bertha Jackson, a talented reader, gave "Patsy," by Kate Douglass Wiggin. Those present who had heard Miss Jackson give "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" in the Masonic temple recently considered it quite a treat to have the pleasure of hearing her again.

A social hour followed the program and dainty refreshments were served by the gracious ladies who had made the occasion possible, which brought to a close a very delightful afternoon.

WASH CHANNEL OBSTRUCTIONS

What is everybody's business too often does not get the attention of anybody. There are 12,000 people who should be interested in having the obstructions removed from the wash channel at the P. E. and Central avenue bridges, and yet there is delay in taking action to have the errors corrected.

The Glendale Merchants' Association at its last meeting took into consideration the importance of this question.

In the season of the year when there is no rain there is no cause for alarm, or even during a rainy season when there is not an unusual water fall of course there is not likely to be trouble, but rains like last February will cause great damage to property if these obstructions are allowed to remain in the wash channel.

The rainy season will soon be upon us, and the wash should be put in the very best possible condition.

AT THE CHURCHES.

Has Failed?" The pastor will say some things that will interest and instruct. The people will hear things that will make them think. Too many folks are letting the other fellow do all their thinking.

Last Sunday evening a large audience was present and was much helped by the sermon.

At 11 a. m. the pastor speaks on "Stopping Short." (The pastor of this church has good terminal facilities.)

At 9:45 the Sunday school assembles. This is "rally day" and a large attendance is expected. The superintendent desires a record-breaking attendance.

The C. E. meets at 6:30 p. m. A short and helpful Bible review will open the meeting.

The special music for the day is: Morning anthem, "By the Rivers of Babylon," by Stillwell. Evening anthem, "Depth of Mercy."

BAPTIST CHURCH—"THE GREAT TRIBULATION"

Bible students will be interested in the special lecture for Sunday evening at the First Baptist church. Pastor John Henry Troy, formerly of New York, announces to deliver another of his vital discourses, "The Great Tribulation."

People all over the world are doing some hard thinking in these trying times. What does the suffering of humanity point to? Has any living man a grasp of the situation or are we drifting onward in the mist of a blind fatalism? Is not the bloody spectacle of the world war cause to sicken and disgust right-thinking people even to despair?

Pastor Troy believes and preaches that all of the kingdoms and governments of the world are under the dominion of the devil; that there is not a Christian nation on earth; that all of the peace talk is wrong in motive and blind in its objectives; that the blackest and bitterest days and years of history are in the immediate future; that man has had his trial and has hopelessly failed and has ended a God-defying Christ-rejecting brute; that only the introduction of the supernatural in the person of the Christ can save the true saints of God out of the impending doom; that preachers who talk against the visible manifestation of Christ have rejected the sure word of prophecy and are drifting along with the wreck of a thousand false systems of philosophy.

Morning theme, "Behold the Lamb of God." Special music at both services. Miss Maud Salisbury, famous pianist. Mr. Cunningham, baritone. One of Valintine's students, violin.

Sunday school, 9:30. Roy Kent, superintendent. B. Y. P. U. at 6:30. Special speaker from the city who has had a great experience in missionary work.

NORTH GLENDALE

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Eckles of 920 North Central avenue will entertain as their house guest for the week-end Miss Amelia Goudy of York, Neb., who is spending some time in California. Miss Goudy has held the responsible position as principal in one of the York grammar schools for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Dourte of 1304 North Central avenue, formerly of Lancaster, Pa., will entertain as their house guests over Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Harry Peck of Los Angeles, who have but recently married and are enjoying their honeymoon. Quite interesting is the story of these old-time friends, who were children together in Lancaster, Pa., and who separated, one going to California several years previous to the other one, and the accidental meeting of the couple in Los Angeles, which of course brought back memories of childhood days and how Cupid got busy, for out of the intimacy and friendship came the wedding of the happy couple to the delight of their many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Peck will remain in California and expect to make Los Angeles their home.

The many friends of Miss Maybeth Pigg of Randolph street will be very glad to learn that she is rapidly recovering from a severe attack of tonsilitis that has confined her to her home for the past fortnight.

Mrs. Carrie Murphy of 1648 Ruth street was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Philip Ballerino of North Hoover street, Los Angeles, Friday.

Mr. Oliver Loomis of Los Angeles was the guest of his cousin, Mr. I. C. Rice, and family, of 1632 Ruth street Friday.

Many charitable institutions are run mainly for the benefit of the salaried officials.

Next to Krupp's daughter, Emperor William is the largest stockholder in the Krupp gun works.

PEOPLE JUDGE THE WEALTH OF A TOWN

by its banks. If they are located in modern buildings, well equipped to give first-class service to their depositors and well organized to insure safety, people speak of such a city as a rich and prosperous one.

The First National Bank of Glendale has had a most successful growth and offers its depositors every advantage and convenience of a metropolitan bank, but could be a still greater factor in the upbuilding of Glendale, if every Glendale citizen transacted his or her banking business in Glendale, for the reason that the funds of this bank are loaned to Home People on Home Securities and are at all times engaged in the upbuilding of local interests.

OPEN LETTER IN REPLY TO REV. BAKER P. LEE

The author of "Real Temperance Versus Prohibition" bases his twaddle upon the claim that prohibition is a menace to the civil and religious liberty of the American people, and against the teaching of the Bible.

He demands that "some leader within the ranks of the organized and authorized church, as custodian of the faith, should lift up his voice in protest."

This assumed "leader" of the church signs himself "reverend," a title belonging to Jehovah alone. Psalms 111:9, "Holy and reverend is his name." "Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain." But "thou shalt not" is prohibition and dear Baker P. is agin it. "It's a menace." The decalogue prohibits murder and adultry, but this "custodian of the faith" replies, "No, no, that's prohibition." "Thou shalt not steal," says Jehovah. "Just a little be temperate," says Baker P. He declares "Prohibition dressed in the garb of religion is perverting the teachings of the Bible." He gives a page of Bible references where wine is mentioned and, without regard to text or context, assumes tippling is sanctioned by the Bible. He reminds me of his old ancestor, who persuaded poor Adam and Eve. They were at liberty to practice temperance with the prohibited fruit of Eden. That ancestor in his temptation of our Lord possessed Baker P.'s egotism and ability to pervert scriptures. This Solomon the second advocates beer gardens and alcohol guzzling and assumes he is sustained by scripture.

In his article he exults over the emancipation of the negro, yet there is more Bible authority for slavery than for wine drinking. The Hebrew nation practiced slavery and it was regulated by the law of Moses.

Peter commanded slaves "to be subject to their own masters," and Paul sent Philemon's escaped slave, back into servitude. His temperance logic would re-establish the human auction block. Jesus said, "Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free." While Christ and his apostles did not use the "Carrie Nation hatchet" on human shackles, they planted a truth that has stayed the lash and is putting old King Alcohol and his jester, Baker P., on the anxious seat. This modern Solomon says, "Wine is one of the most pleasurable and helpful products of old mother earth." Now listen to Solomon the first: "Look not on the wine (just a little says Baker P) when it is red; at the last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder." Proverbs 23:31-32, "Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging, and whosoever is deceived thereby is not wise," Prov. 20:1.

Poor Baker P. Solomon calls you a "fool," for you say wine is one of the most pleasurable and helpful products of mother earth. Again you say "Jesus and the god of nature have always been in the vintage business and will continue to be as long as the precious grape is planted." You are wrong again. God and mother earth produce the grapes, but grapes would never become wine without the aid of man.

God also grows the poppy, but man extracts the opium. Would you advocate opium smoking to protect the property of the opium den keeper? Great intellect, thou who protests the injustice of confiscation of saloon property, do you also say it was morally and legally wrong to confiscate property in slaves? Would you protect the private still on the same ground? If not, why? Would not your German beer garden work a great injustice to the poor viniculturists by developing an appetite in our little boys and girls for beer rather than wine? Why is Germany the great center of socialism if beer gardens produce ideal happiness and liberty? Baker P., solomon says you are a fool.

I think your own Bishop Potter tried the church saloon, did he not? From your viewpoint, how in the world could pigs, blind, cross-eyed or otherwise afflicted, "seriously handicap the world's fair at San Francisco? They would only aid in your form of temperance. Lastly, you claim to be reverend, yet you call prohibitionists "dishonest, foolish, ignorant, subtle, malicious, hypocrites, fanatics, narrow, bigoted, libelous, blasphemous and pirates," because they differ from your opinion. You say "a leading clergyman of Los Angeles was found in a wine room with a young girl." If they were not over-indulging your doctrine exhonerates them.

"Prohibition would be a menace to both their civil and religious liberty." You say there are churches in which 50% are tipplers. Now that all may be convinced that these awful epithets you have made against prohibitionists — the charge you make against that minister and against those churches are true—I challenge you to produce proof or apologize.

Again you say it is well known that in prohibition towns anyone can get all he wants to drink with money. If no money, no drinks. "Unfair to the poor man." Can the poor man get drinks in licensed towns without money? If all can get drink, with money, in prohibition towns, then why do you say, "wrong to the poor man and viniculturist?" No wonder Solomon said you are not wise. Allow me to suggest that there is a difference between a jumble of words and real argument and mere statements are not proof. Since you have lain aside your ministerial garb and exposed the ghostly skeleton of your real self, bigoted prohibitionists cannot possibly deprive you of your earnest desire to line up with your barkeeper associates before the final judgment throne of God. They may frustrate your desire for "German beer in California." Thou baffler, liberty is not license. This great American republic already prohibits eating and drinking certain things, for example, heroin, cocaine, opium, etc. It regulates treatment of children and compels their attendance at school. It prohibits murder except by saloons. They are permitted to destroy men, body and soul, by the thousands annually and rob widows and orphans in the bargain. That some moderate drinkers may be indulged, you, a minister, advocate licensing the right to destroy the thousands of poor fellows who are not strong enough to resist appetite.

Dear rector, did you never read Rom. 15:1: "We that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak and not to please ourselves?" Nor Heb. 2:15: "Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink?" Nor I Cor. 6:10: "Drunkards shall not inherit the kingdom of God?"

Reverend (?) Baker P., either banish your desire for beer gardens and practice the morals you pretend to preach and by which you receive your bread and butter, or put on a white apron and join the priests of Bacchus. Your attitude must be a stench in the nostrils of both God and man.

A COMPLIMENTARY NOTICE

Dumas one day dined at the house of Dr. Gistal, a celebrity of Marseilles. After dinner the good doctor brought his distinguished guest an autograph album and asked him to add his name to it.

"Certainly," said Dumas, and he wrote:

"Since the famous Dr. Gistal began to practice here they have demolished the hospital—"

"Flattery!" cried the delighted doctor.

"And on its site made a cemetery," added the author.—Exchange.
